CAN'T PAY SALARIES.

Paterson, N. J., City Employees Lack Because of Mayor's Absence.

Paterson, N. J., August 4.—This city is without a head, and its city officials cannot collect their salaries, owing to the continued mysterious absence of Mayor William H. Belcher, who disappeared on Monday last. This chaotic state of affairs must continue for at least ten days from the time of Mr. Belcher's disappearance before an acting mayor can assume the city government's reins, according to Paterson's city charter.

All salaries to city employees and officials for July are now due and ready County Prosecutor Emley is continuing his investigation of loans in which Mayor Belcher was interested.

The Times' Daily Short Story.

Shrewd Jabez Crowfutt

[Original.]

Jabez Crowfutt prided himself on his shrewdness. It has been said that genius is unconscious—that is, if one has an especial gift he is unconscious of it, whereas if he thinks he possesses a gift he is usually mistaken. At any rate, Jabez considered his faculty for making shrewd deals so pronounced that he left his wife to do all the work on his little farm while he traded in horseflesh, cattle and such live stock as farmers use. All the money that was made came from the woman's efforts.

One summer evening Jabez was smoking his pipe on his stoop when a man drove up in a buggy and asked if he could be accommodated with a supper and a bed for the night. Jabez was about to turn him away when he noticed that the horse he drove was built for speed. He at once conceived the idea of getting the animal into his possession by trading the poorest horse in his barn for it and accepted to the stranger's request. During the evening he pumped the owner of the animal to discover if he was aware of its value. The man did not appear to put much value on his horse, and Jabez thought if he could keep him in the house long enough he might make the trade.

Jabez had no difficulty in persuading the stranger to remain over a day, and, for the matter of that, he showed no disposition to depart at the end of a week or a month or six months. He was all this time making up his mind whether he wished to swap horses. Then Jabez told him to make up his mind or get out, whereupon the stranger swapped horses without any to boot, and Jabez was delighted. The horse he gave was not worth $50, while the one he received he finally sold for $500. This fine bargain, the only one Jabez ever made, confirmed him in the opinion that he was a horn piper.

One day the stranger told Jabez that he was staying in the region for his wife; that he had been greatly benefited and proposed to remain indefinitely. If Jabez would let him build a new house on his premises he would give a fine rental and turn over his use to Jabez without cost on his part. Jabez was delighted. The stranger asked him to fix his own terms, and Jabez named an enormous fee considering that in a short time was to have the building. The fee consented at once.

Jabez supposed that as soon as the house was signed the building would up, but by the terms the stranger was tied to put his structure wherever pleased on Jabez's property. He at several weeks making up his mind, then astonished Jabez by choosing a spot which included the well.

MORSE MUST FACE MUSIC.

Indicted Lawyer Hummel Says Uncle James' Story Will Not Clear Ice King.

New York, Aug. 5.—Charles W. Morse cannot escape the responsibility he incurred when he entered this case. He must face the truth. The story of Uncle James, accepted by District Attorney Jerome, is so ridiculously absurd and childlike that it seems incredible that any man would swallow whole such a tale, designed, on the face of it, to permit the escape of Charles W. Morse from connection with the affair.

This was said yesterday by a friend of A. H. Hummel, one of the lawyers indicted for conspiracy in connection with the Dodge-Morse divorce scandal.

Mr. Hummel, it is said, would not allow Banker C. W. Morse to get out of the limelight into which he had stepped when Mrs. Morse's former husband, Dodge, obtained a judgment setting aside her divorce against him, thereby rendering her marriage to Morse illegal.

JAPS MASTERS OF SAKHALIN

Bulk of the Russian Garrison in Island Surrenders.

3,200 MEN ARE PRISONERS

Rich Stores, Maps and Supplies Seized by Mikado's Men—The Governor Is a Prisoner, Too.

Tokio, August 5.—The bulk of the Russian garrison at Sakhalin surrendered to the Japanese July 31.

A report giving details of the final pursuit and surrender of the majority of the Russian garrison on Sakhalin island, just received, is as follows:

"An independent cavalry column on the afternoon of July 28 attacked the enemy south of Paleo and routed him, driving him southward, capturing two field guns, besides a number of rifles and a quantity of ammunition.

"On July 29 the cavalry, being reinforced, vigorously pursued the enemy south of Tsykoi, which lies 25 miles south of Rykoff. The enemy halted at Onoi, 23 miles south of Tsykoi, and at 5 o'clock on the morning of July 30 sent a letter under a flag of truce to the Japanese commanding officer from Gen. Liapoff, the Russian governor, saying that the lack of bandage material and medicine, and the consequent inability to succor the wounded, compelled him from a sense of humanity to terminate hostilities.

"The commander of the Japanese force replied, demanding the delivery of all war supplies and property of the Russian government, the injured and the delivery of all maps, records and papers relating to the Russian civil and military administration, and requiring their delivery in reply at 10 o'clock on the morning of July 31, otherwise an attacking movement would immediately begin.

"Col. Tolivitch, on behalf of Gov. Liapoff, met Col. Koizumi, Japanese chief of staff, on the morning of July 31, and accepted the proposed terms.

"Gov. Liapoff, 70 officers and 3,200 men of the Russian garrison then surrendered.

REV. E. T. HUTCHINS.

Burial of Well Known Minister in Plainfield Center.

Plainfield, August 5.—The funeral of the Rev. E. T. Hutchins was held at his late home Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. C. H. Farnsworth of Manchester, N. H., officiated. He spoke of the beautiful Christian character of Mr. Hutchins and of his first experience, as Mr. Farnsworth was the preacher in charge at Plainfield when Mr. Hutchins first sought the change of life. He baptized and took him into his church and gave him his first exhorter's license.

Mr. Hutchins was born in Waterbury, Vt., 32 years ago. He was married to Miss Gummison August 2, 1870. On June 13, 1874, a daughter was born and he was left a widower, with his little daughter, Mina. In 1876 he was married again to Miss Nettie White. To this union five children were born.

He was converted 18 years ago, and had a strong call from God to enter the ministry. He commenced his first work at Maple Hill, and a good work was accomplished. He then preached five years in West Groton and many souls were saved. A beautiful Methodist church was erected, and to this day meetings are held there. He preached at Corinth Corner five years and as usual success attended his labors. His work at Montpelier for four years was marked with souls being saved, and added to the church. His last work was in Barre and he was very much loved by his members. His last sermon has been especially spoken of, for it was full of the Holy Ghost and power, and touched the hearts of all who listened to him. He has been in poor health for the last seven years and for three months he has been confined to the house.

His death was sudden to his friends and relatives though at times he thought he had not long to stay. He is survived by a wife and six children, Mina Farnsworth of Warren, Ernest Hutchins of Plainfield, Arthur Hutchins of Warren, Leon and Harold Hutchins and Goldie Hutchins of Plainfield, six grandchildren, three brothers and five sisters.

The interment was in Plainfield Center, his four sons being the bearers. The funeral was largely attended. There were many beautiful flowers: Mrs. Hutchins, a pillow of roses and carnations, marked "Husband"; the children, a wreath of roses and chrysanthemums, marked "Father"; from the three sisters, a wreath of sweet peas; Mr. and Mrs. Parlaro, sweet williams; Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hutchins, sweet peas and carnations; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hutchins, carnations; Mrs. Bertha Payne and Miss Ivis Hutchins, dahlias and sunbonnets; Mrs. Nellie Perry, carnations; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, basket of flowers and wreath; Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, wreath of Fenerfens; Mr. and Mrs. Pedersen, sweet peas; Mrs. L. K. Abbott, pansies; Mr. and Mrs. McQuigan, roses and Aquilegia; Mary LaPoint and sister, sweet peas; Mr. and Mrs. Trombley, sweet peas; Mrs. Allen, sweet peas and carnations; Mr. and Mrs. John Gallon, carnations; Mrs. Mary Colner, roses and chrysanthemums; Mrs. S. E. Wells; sweet peas and dahlias; Ladies of the L. O. T. M., carnations; Beulah Batchelder, sweet peas and nasturtiums; Alice Batchelder, wreath of pansies and bouquet

MARSHFIELD.

Eugene Shiner, formerly of this place, was arrested in Waterbury late yesterday by Constable J. Berton Pike of this town and turned over to the city authorities in Barre late in the evening, where he was wanted for alleged complicity in a stealing affair some two weeks ago. The complaint was issued by Grand Juror Scott of Barre and placed in the hands of the police officers, who were unable to locate Shiner. Later, the warrant was placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Bert Slayton, who turned the matter over to the officer here, with instructions to arrest young Shiner wherever found, and bring him in. Shiner left this town to attend the Ringling Brothers' circus in Montpelier, and has since made a tour of several towns in the state, turning up in Waterbury Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Stevenson is causing the ruins and rubbish to be removed from the site of her house, and the cellar cleaned. We trust that this is the forerunner of a new house or block on this spot. Simeon Swerdfefer has purchased a handsome pair of matched draft horses, to be used on the mill team. Swerdfefer & Shortt have commenced running a delivery team in the village and vicinity. This is a new feature in our town.

We clip the following from the products of the Journal scribe, and endorse his terms of our aged brother: "In the venerable personage of Remember Cole, now in his sixth year, we have a citizen who for ability to hustle and accomplish something would pale some of the younger set of any locality. During the present haying season he has taken up regular work every day with the rest of the men in the field, and also when necessary demonstrated that it was yet impossible to bury him in the mow. At chore time he takes up his position with the rest and milks five or six cows twice a day, and when the day's work is all done could execute a double shuffle on the kitchen floor for the entertainment of his exhausted younger co-workers."

Walter Phelps of Melndoes Falls has been purchasing new milk cows, and beef cattle for his father in that place, and drove some cattle there Friday. Next Tuesday morning O. H. Smith will superintend carring the beef cattle.

CHELSEA.

Hon. Hale K. Darling was at home from Montpelier Thursday, returning in the evening.

Mrs. J. F. Edwards and Mrs. E. I. Hubbard of Brookfield were guests at Allen Dickinson's last Wednesday.

Miss Ethel Moulton of Boston is visiting friends in town. Among those who went to Burlington on the excursion the first of the week were W. W. Perkins and Will H. Cook. Alfred Fisher of Worcester, Mass., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sprague. Madam Marshall and daughter, Miss Florence, are spending a few days with friends in Strafford.

The Rev. J. S. Hathaway of Washington will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist church next Sabbath.

County Examiner John M. Comstock was in Bradford Tuesday and Wednesday, holding teachers' examinations. Mrs. W. E. Knight of Taunton, Mass., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Walter Smith. Mrs. Knight will be remembered as Miss Fannie Hunt, a former resident and the daughter of D. S. Hunt. Attorney Stanley C. Wilson has been promoted in the National Guard from sergeant in Co. H to one of the two color sergeants of the regiment. He went to Montpelier Thursday to arrange for attending the annual muster and returned Friday.

George C. Ryder, who has a position as clerk in the United States pension office at Concord, N. H., and who has been spending a short vacation in Chelsea and Corinth, returned to Concord the 1st of the week.

Dr. Otis M. Rice returned the 1st of the week from a visit to his brother, T. R. Rice of Haverhill, Mass.

There was a hearing at the county clerk's office Wednesday afternoon before Deputy Clerk S. C. Wilson on the assessment of damages in the case of Southern Brewing Co. of Boston and Evan E. Evans of Randolph. Attorney G. L. Stow appeared for the plaintiff and N. L. Boyden for the defendant.

Deputy Sheriff E. W. Kent of Randolph was in town Thursday evening, bringing over John Chamberlain, who had fractured the dignity of the peace, to board with B. H. Adams, Jr., at the jail, for ten days.

TEN YEARS

Story of My Wonderful Success!

Reads Like a Fairy Tale, Yet Full of Convincing Truths.

AN OPPORTUNITY OF A LIFETIME FOR THE INVESTOR. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years, the Story of My Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build up an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Arverno Hotel, Arverno-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as our Brooklyn Institute. I also do an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States and in English speaking countries.

woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark street, Brooklyn, N. Y., in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this, to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

CO-OPERATION IS THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co-operators throughout the country, I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are the proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of The Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on.

A PROBLEM. which arises in the mind of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the treasury stock of this Company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I WISH TO ERECT A BUILDING and to extend the business of The MAC LEVY INSTITUTE OF PHYSICAL CULTURE and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER. I need your help and suggestions. I want you to work with me and help me secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my institute, you would want no further evidence that money put into this business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Banks pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This company ought to pay at least TWENTY PER CENT DIVIDENDS within a year.

Write for my book today—NOW.
